Our Family Rules

A Rules & Consequences Chart to Share With Every Caregiver

A few starter examples, plus room to add the rule that matters most in your house.

Rule	If It Happens Anyway…
Toys get played with gently, not thrown	If it's thrown again, it gets put away for the rest of the evening
Crayons and markers stay on paper	Help clean it up, then no crayons for the rest of the day
Toys get picked up when playtime is over	They stay put away for the rest of the day
Add the rule that matters most in your house right now

Caregivers who've seen this chart:

Grandma / Grandpa _____ Babysitter _____ Daycare / Preschool _____

Tip: respond the same way whether the rule was broken on purpose or simply forgotten.
